Admission to IIFT's MPIB is made on the basis of an All India Competitive Examination comprising a Written Test, Group Discus sion and Volic. The admission to IIFT's PGDP, which has now been scrapped, was also done on the basis of an All India Competitive examination. Admission to EMIT programme is made on the basis of interviews.

For all these three post-graduate programmes of IIFT reservations for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes candidates are made upto the following extent:

(i) Scheduled Castes: 15%

(ii) Scheduled Tribes: 7.5%

The short fall was due to the fact that either sufficient number of SC/ST candidates did not apply for admission or they could not qualify in the written examination even after lowering the cut off point upto 10%.

For Management Development Programmes, including sponsored programmes there is no reservation. AH those who apply or are sponsored are admitted to these programmes.
